

ABRAHAM, WATKINS, NICHOLS, SORRELS & FRIEND

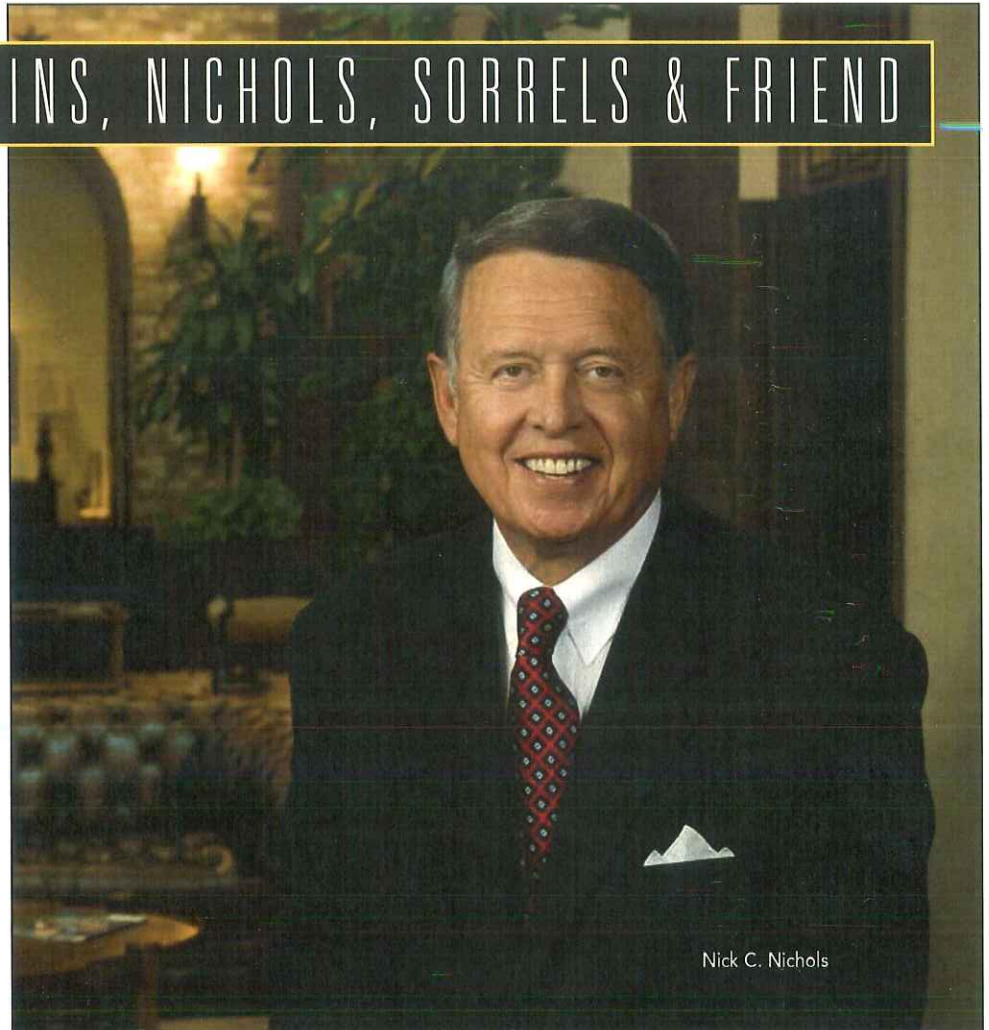

As the senior partner in the well known firm of Abraham, Watkins, Nichols, Sorrels & Friend, Nick C. Nichols handles major litigation involving catastrophic injuries, wrongful death, products liability, representation of sports celebrities, and business litigation, and was lead counsel in the high profile case of Rudy Tomjanovich v. Cal Sports Inc. d/b/a L.A. Lakers, a landmark case in sports litigation.

The recipient of the prestigious Southern Trial Lawyers Association "War Horse Award", he is also a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, Inner Circle of Advocates, and the International Society of Barristers; a Director of the International Academy of Trial Lawyers and Southern Trial Lawyers Association; and past-president of the Houston American Board of Trial Advocates Chapter. He is consistently selected by his peers for inclusion in Best Lawyer in America® and as a Super Lawyer in Texas Monthly, and the Nick Nichols Endowed Presidential Scholarship has been established at the University of Texas School of Law.

Mr. Nichols attended Rice University on an athletic scholarship and has recently been both honored with the Distinguished Alumni Award for Rice University and included in the Rice University Athletic Department's Book of Champions.

Mr. Nichols and the firm of Abraham, Watkins, Nichols, Sorrels and Friend provide dedicated representation to their clients based on the firm's fifty years of experience and expertise, as well as a reputation of excellence, honesty, credibility, and integrity.
