SINCE 1951, ABRAHAM, WATKINS, NICHOLS, SORRELS, AGOSTO & Friend have provided legal representation to clients in cases involving catastrophic accidents, wrongful death, personal injury and business matters.

The firm, through its reputation, experience and record, is considered one of the pre-eminent law firms in Texas and throughout the United States. Abraham, Watkins takes great pride in representing all clients, from the smallest rural communities to the largest cities. The firm's historical success is marked by the preparation, investigation, resources and established record of trial experience of its lawyers. Every client and case is extremely important to all members of the firm and a personal relationship is always established between the client, lawyer and staff.

Abraham, Watkins is often recognized by the legal community, publications, organizations and associations throughout the country. The firm recently received the inaugural Harris

County Bench Bar Pro Bono Award for small firms and individual lawyers for commitment to the betterment of the community. Senior partner Nick Nichols received the 2008 Rice Distinguished Alumni Award for his commitment and service to Rice University. Partner Randall Sorrels received the State Bar of Texas President's Award for outstanding service to the lawyers of Texas and partner Benny Agosto received the State Bar of Texas President's Certificate of Merit Award. The firm offers free consultation and evaluation of prospective cases and handles most litigation on a contingency basis.
